2023/24 1st semester
PHIL 3383 Philosophy of Death
Course Outline

Instructor: Dr. Kwok Pak Nin, Samson
Time: Monday 14:30-16:15
Venue: LSK 212

Course overview:

This course aims to be a comprehensive introduction to the philosophy of death. It will introduce and critically examine the major issues of philosophy of death from the Anglo-American as well as Chinese philosophical perspectives. Topics to be discussed include: the definition of life and death, human ontology, the nature and evil of death, death and existence, the problem of immortality...etc. The practical issues related to death such as suicide, human extinction, and the meaning of life will be discussed as well.

Learning outcomes:

Upon completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. understand the meaning of death in both Western and Chinese philosophical traditions.
2. read and understand the classic text on philosophy of death.
3. understand the existential relevance of philosophy of death to everyday life.
4. reflect on the meaning of life in contrast to death.

Learning activities and workload:

1. Lecture: 2 hours each week.

Academic honesty and plagiarism:

Attention is drawn to University policy and regulations on honesty in academic work, and to the disciplinary guidelines and procedures applicable to breaches of such policy and regulations. Details may be found at http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/policy/academichonesty/ . With each assignment, students will be required to submit a signed declaration that they are aware of these policies, regulations, guidelines and procedures. For group projects, all students of the same group should be asked to sign the declaration. For assignments in the form of a computer-generated document that is principally text-based and submitted via VeriGuide, the statement, in the form of a receipt, will be issued by the system upon students' uploading of the soft copy of the assignment. Assignments without the receipt will not be graded by teachers. Only the final version of the assignment should be submitted via VeriGuide.
