

Contents

Editors' Preface	vii
Part I Phenomenology and Interculturality
1. Threshold Experiences Bernhard WALDENFELS	1
2. A Phenomenological Approach to Interculturality Toru TANI	17
3. The Flesh: From Ontological Employment to Intercultural Employment Kwok-ying LAU	25
4. When Phenomenology of the Body Goes East... Mathias OBERT	45
5. Husserl on the Source and Resolution of Cultural Differences in the Life-world Thomas NENON	63
6. Husserl on the Difference between Europe and Non-Europe Chung-Chi YU	75
7. Phenomenological Xenology in View of Merleau-Ponty and Waldenfels Zaeshick CHOI	87
8. The Role of Thinking and Action as Phenomenological Border-crossing Wen-Sheng WANG	103
Part II Phenomenology and Interdisciplinarity
9. Bracketing into Face-to-Face Encounters:

The Conjunction of the Epistemological and Existential Dimensions of Phenomenological Methodology Wei-Lun LEE	115
10. Multicultural Counseling and Phenomenology Seongba HONG	131
11. Towards a Phenomenological Approach to the Problem of Organ Transplantation after Brain Death Shinji HAMAUZU	147
12. A Phenomenological Study on Caring for People with Suicidal Inclinations Tetsuya SAKAKIBARA	159
13. Phenomenology at the Limits of Religion R. Philip BUCKLEY	171
14. Towards the World of Expression: Merleau-Ponty's Breakthrough in the Issue of Expression Xiaomeng NING	185
15. The Significance of Gestalt Psychology for Merleau-Ponty and Its Limits Jung-Sun HAN HEUER	195
16. The Concept of Essence in Carl Menger's Economics Nam-In LEE	213
Contributors	227